

Drug and Alcohol Policy:

Fit To Ride

Triple Peak Adventures and SHESHREDS MTB, maintain a STRICT zero tolerance policy when it comes to drug, alcohol and cannabis use before or during any Triple Peak Adventures/SHESHREDS MTB events. The importance of this policy is underscored by the fact that an error in judgment or compromised motor skills while participating in these events could result in serious injury. It is critical that our riders remain free from the effects, including the after-effects, of drugs, alcohol and Cannabis use while attending Triple Peak Adventures/SHESHREDS MTB events.

Triple Peak Adventures/SHESHREDS MTB Management reserves the right to remove any participant or coach from any Triple Peak Adventures/SHESHREDS MTB Event who we believe is not fit to ride. This is at our sole discretion. This includes being under the influence of drugs, alcohol or cannabis. If this occurs, you will be asked to cease participation immediately. You will be banned from all future Triple Peak Adventures/SHESHREDS MTB events and you forfeit your refund.

This policy is non-negotiable and by signing below you indicate that you understand and agree to this policy.
